
process is managed by its equity partner and project manager. Insufficient technical data on the processing of Amapa mineralized material existed at the time of the Form 10-K disclosure precluding estimation of recoverable product and grade, and therefore economic reserves. Project commissioning in 2008 is expected to begin in 2009.

